The greatest bargains ever before in Cookeville at Tom Lowe's cut price sale.

W. C. Murphy of Hilham was here today on his way home from White county.

R. L. Jared of Nashville was here Monday and will move to this city soon.

The Veneer Company is buying timber again and will soon start up their plant.

Orville Buck of Junction City, Ky., is visiting friends and relatives in this section.

J. A. Judd, manager of the Algood Home Telephone Co. was in Cookeville Wednesday.

Protracted meeting will begin at Lone Oak next Sunday and will continue several days.

Miss Grace Russell of Carthage has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Witt.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Watson and little daughter of Warren, Ohio are the guests of Miss Cora Ford.

Miss Cora Hix of Monterey has returned home after spending several days with Mrs. B. C. Jones.

The machinery of the Cookeville Column Co. has been sold to Sparta parties and moved to that place.

Miss Catherine Lee of Weleetka, Oklahoma was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. B. C. Jones, several days last week.

L. Hayden Clark and family have returned from Red Boiling Springs, where they have been visiting for several days.

The best service possible we consider none too good for our country patrons and the citizens of this town.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Tom Lowe's cut price sale lasts one more solid week.

Rev. J. T. Blackwood, Presiding Elder of Lebanon district, preached two very interesting sermons last Sunday in the Methodist church.

A. Algood has resigned as a member of the board of education and his successor will be elected at the next meeting of the aldermen on Aug. 14.

Work has begun on the new two-story brick residence of C. S. Jenkins on Main Street between the houses of Dr. H. C. Martin and W. A. Crawford.

Dr. W. P. Bone of Lebanon occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and night, and delivered two helpful, uplifting sermons.

Prof. S. H. Proffitt and family of Sale Creek returned home last week after spending several days with Cookeville friends. They were accompanied by Notie and Roscoe Proffitt of this city.

Mrs. T. H. Starnes has a brown Leghorn hen that has laid 270 eggs in nine months, only missing four days in that time. The eggs are very large, weighing about two pounds to the dozen.

Services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday morning and night, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Doss. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Secret of Power." Everybody is invited to attend these services.

This is the best season of the year to treat Catarrh, and Hinds' Catarrh Remedy is the best thing to use. It is doing splendid work. Order a bottle before your case gets hopeless. Price $1.50 by mail. Z. T. Hinds, Druggist, Cookeville, Tenn.

Esq. J. P. McCawley of Algood, whose arm was broken some time back, while he was operating a stump-puller, proved a worse injury than was apparent. Gangrene developed and the arm had to be taken off at the shoulder. Drs. Fowler, Howard and Hix performing the operation.

The members of Miss Luna Davis' class of the Presbyterian church met Tuesday and organized a society. No name has been given it yet. The following officers were elected: Flossie West, organist; Anita Price, vice-president; Luna Davis, president; Lucile Allison, secretary and treasurer. The society is to meet once a month.

Cookeville got the state highway just like it got the state normal school. It is the best town in this section of the state, however, and has the best schools, the best stock of merchandise and the best people. And Putnam county has the best system of pikes. We will grow and prosper without the blamed old highway, so let it go.

The Cookeville Public School will open Sept. 11th. On the 5th and 6th of September, examinations will be given pupils who failed to pass at the spring examination and who desire promotion. The examinations will begin at 8 a. m. on Tuesday, the 5th, and all persons expecting to take these examinations must be present at that time.

T. K. SISK, Supt.

GIVING OUT

The Struggle Discourages Many a Citizen of Cookeville

Around all day with an aching back; Can't rest at night; Enough to make any one "give out". Doan's Kidney Pills give renewed life.

They strengthen the kidneys. Here is convincing proof that this is so:

W. R. Woodall, Public Square, Lebanon, Tenn., says: "My back ached intensely and there were pains throughout my body, these troubles being caused by disordered kidneys. My head also ached and the kidney secretions contained sediment. Nothing benefited me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. Since using them I have been well and I have no hesitation in giving this statement, for I am certain that this remedy will prove just as effective in similar cases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Notice

The Insolvency of the estate of L. M. Ford, deceased, having been suggested to me, by Z. Dixon and W. M. Walker, administrators of said estate, I hereby give notice to all persons holding claims against the estate of said deceased, to come forward and file them with me, properly authenticated, as Clerk aforesaid, for adjudication and pro rata distribution of said estate on or before the 1st day of January, 1912, or the same will be forever barred. This July 31, 1911.

W. O. WATSON, Clerk.
